

PSY 101: Exam ONE

Instructions: Read each question carefully, and select the BEST response to each item. DO NOT WRITE ON THE EXAM.

1. Ruby makes the following hypothesis: People who score highly on exams are more likely to transfer to universities than those who do not.
What should Ruby do next?
  - a. collect data
  - b. operationalize the hypothesis
  - c. replicate the study
  - d. develop a theory
  - e. B and D

2. TRUE or FALSE: The stroop test is a measure of REM activity.
  - a. True
  - b. False

3. As a subject in an experiment, you are told to look at a coffee mug carefully and then report all of your sensations and feelings about the coffee mug after viewing it. What psychological technique have you been told to use?
  - a. psychoanalysis
  - b. interactive dualism
  - c. latent manifestation
  - d. introspection
  - e. natural selection

4. _____ believed that psychology should emphasize each person's unique potential for psychological growth and self-directedness.
  - a. Carl Rogers
  - b. Edward Titchener
  - c. Abraham Maslow
  - d. A and C
  - e. All of the above

5. Raquel plans to conduct a study on cellular phone use in libraries. She hypothesizes that a person who does not turn off his/her phone when entering a library has an over-developed id and an under-developed super ego. Which of the following statements is NOT true about Raquel's work:
  - a. the id and super ego are independent variables
  - b. she believes in the psychodynamic approach to psychology
  - c. cell phone use in libraries is the dependent variable
  - d. A and C
  - e. none of the above. A, B, & C are true.